

Translation Extension for Magento 2 User Guide

1. Introduction

The Translation extension for Magento 2 facilitates you to translate your Magento 2 store into multiple languages. Increase your customer base and enhance your customer experience by providing content in their preferred language.

2. General Configuration

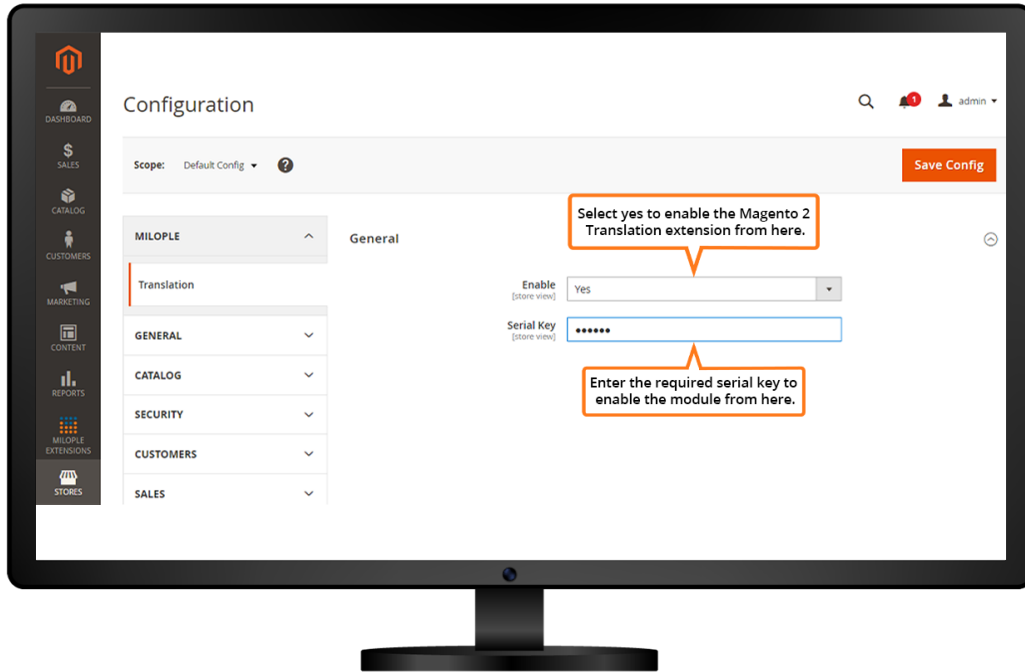

After buying the Magento 2 Translation extension, you can configure it by navigating here through the Magento backend.

3. Extension Configuration

After purchasing the extension, you can choose to enable the extension from the backend.

The admin can enter the serial key to configure the Translation extension for Magento 2.

4. Translation Extension on Product Page

Google Translation extension for Magento 2 enabled on the frontend.

